YOUR ITINERARY

DAY 1 ~ MONDAY ~ JUNE 21
SAN FRANCISCO/EN ROUTE
Begin your journey as you board your overnight flight to London. (Meals Aloft)

DAY 2~TUESDAY~JUNE 22
LONDON
Arrive in London’s Heathrow Airport where you will be met by your driver and escorted to your hotel, Double Tree by Hilton, Islington.

The great British author Samuel Johnson had it right when he wrote of London:

“You find no man, at all intellectual, who is willing to leave London. No, sir, when a man is tired of London, he is tired of life; for there is in London all that life can afford.”

London is a cosmopolitan mixture of the Third and First Worlds, of chauffeurs and beggars, of the establishment, the avowedly working class and the avant-garde. There is an endless list of world-class museums, monuments, buildings, churches and historical sites. With a population of just under eight million, (one-eighth the population of England, Scotland and Wales) London is Europe’s largest city, spreading across an area of more than 620 square miles from its core on the River Thames. But to many travelers it never really feels big, as each of the 32 boroughs possesses a character, lore, and rhythm all its own. There is the heraldic splendor of Westminster, the chic of artistic Chelsea, the architectural elegance of Belgravia and Mayfair, the cosmopolitan charm of Soho and the East End, and of course the theater scene of the West End and its fringes.

Begin your exploration and discovery of London proper on your morning panoramic tour featuring major London sites such as Knightsbridge and perhaps the most famous retail therapy haven of them all, Harrods. See also Hyde Park, Piccadilly Circus, Trafalgar Square, Houses of Parliament, Westminster Abbey, River Thames, St. Paul’s Cathedral, and the Tower of London.

Your home for the next six nights is Double Tree by Hilton, Islington. Well-located between London’s high fashion houses, financial powerhouses and the West End’s packed theater houses, Islington is right at the hub of a transport network that gets you to all the delights that London has to offer. The intimate hotel offers a warm and friendly atmosphere along with all the modern amenities including in-room Wi-Fi access, flat screen TV, tea and coffee maker, and a hairdryer. There is a hotel bar and restaurant for your dining pleasure.
Tonight, enjoy a welcome dinner to get better acquainted with your fellow travelers.
Overnight at the DOUBLE TREE BY HILTON ISLINGTON, or similar. (Meals Aloft, D)

DAY 3 ~ WEDNESDAY ~ JUNE 23

LONDON ~ BRITISH MUSEUM & WESTMINSTER ABBEY

With around 80,000 objects on display, the British Museum really is one of the great museums of the world. After entering into the museum through the spectacular glass-roofed Great Hall, you will be taken on a journey through over two million years of human history. Artefacts from the world’s great cultures from pre-history through the Aztecs, Romans, Greek and Egyptian periods include highlights such as the Rosetta Stone, Egyptian mummies and Parthenon sculptures. Entry to the vast permanent collection is free but there are also ever-changing special exhibitions that can be paid for locally.

Next, explore the religious and cultural landmark of Westminster Abbey, home of countless royal marriages and coronations. The Gothic masterpiece of Westminster Abbey has been at the heart of British history since the formation of the Abbey by Edward the Confessor in 1065. The Abbey became the coronation church for the English monarchy in 1066, was transformed into the modern stone abbey in the reign of Henry III, and has since been the venue for countless magnificent, joyous, and sometimes unfortunate royal events. In modern times, the marriage of Prince William and Kate Middleton, the coronation of Queen Victoria and Queen Elizabeth II, and the funerals of the Queen Mother and Princess Diana have etched the Abbey into the common memory of billions around the globe. A visit to Westminster Abbey takes in such highlights as the Coronation Chair, the medieval Lady Chapel museum, containing a collection of royal effigies, and the Abbey Gardens, which whisk you away from the hubbub of the city.

In the afternoon, enjoy a modern architecture walking tour of London. Award-winning Insider London’s brilliant alternative London walking tour is perfect for exploring London’s architectural wonders and getting the inside story on some of London’s most iconic developments. Discover how these contemporary buildings connect with the capital’s rich history, the superstar architects behind the designs and the quirky and unusual features of London’s innovative buildings – including one building that appears inside out. Starting at Southwark tube station and heading along the South Bank, our professional, highly knowledgeable guide will show you the best modern architecture around the City, St. Paul’s Cathedral and the London Wall before finishing at the center of a stunning new development.

_Tonight, possible reception at the UC Centre London under your own arrangements._
_Tonight’s dinner will be at a local bar._
_Overnight at the DOUBLE TREE BY HILTON ISLINGTON, or similar. (B,D)_
DAY 4 ~ THURSDAY ~ JUNE 24
LONDON/STRATFORD-UPON-AVON
Leave London behind and journey to Stratford-upon-Avon. This unmistakably Tudor town is the birthplace of the author of the most quoted lines in the English language – William Shakespeare. Here you will find typically kitschy experiences – medieval recreations and Bard-themed tearooms, some of which are humbling – Shakespeare’s modest grave at the Holy Trinity Church, and others which are awe-inspiring – taking in a play by the world-famous Royal Shakespeare Company.

A distinctive 16th century, half-timbered house is where the great bard William Shakespeare was born, grew up, and lived with Anne Hathaway and his children for the first five years of their married life. Today it is a literary shrine for millions of pilgrims per year and offers a glimpse into the life of Shakespeare through the artifacts and memorabilia of a number of exhibitions, one of which includes a copy of the only known portrait of the playwright.

Finally, enjoy a workshop with one of the world’s best-known theater ensembles, the Royal Shakespeare Company. The company performs not only the works of Shakespeare, but also his contemporaries and new writing throughout the years in Stratford-upon-Avon. Showcasing two thrust stage auditoria, the 1,000-seat Royal Shakespeare Theatre and 450-seat Swan Theatre bring audiences and actors closer together in the best possible setting to experience live theatre. The workshop will explore the creative choices behind current RSC productions, as well as discussions around acting, directing and, voice and text.

Overnight at the DOUBLE TREE BY HILTON ISLINGTON, or similar. (B,L,D)

DAY 5 ~ FRIDAY ~ JUNE 25
LONDON: GLOBE THEATER
Today utilize your Oyster Card!

Step back in time as you explore Shakespeare’s Globe Theatre, a unique resource that is more than a performance space: It is also dedicated to the exploration of The Bard’s work and the playhouse for which he wrote, through connected means of performance and education. The theatre is a faithful reconstruction of the open-air playhouse designed in 1599 and as true to the original as modern research and traditional craftsmanship can make it. On your visit you will take a guided tour of the theatre itself with expert guide/storytellers who will recall some of the colorful stories of 1599 and explain how the reconstruction process took place in the 1990’s. You will top off your tour with entry into the Shakespeare Exhibition which brings the playwright’s world to life using a range of interactive displays and live demonstrations. Discover how shows were produced in the theaters of Shakespeare’s time, including writing, rehearsals, music, dance, and performance. Cast your eyes upon elaborate Elizabethan costumes or create your own Shakespearean phrases.

Enjoy a pre-theatre dinner with a theatre critic at a local restaurant.

Your visit is made complete by attending a performance here this evening. Afterwards, your motor coach will bring you back to your hotel. Note: Theater performances and schedules are subject to change. Overnight at the DOUBLE TREE BY HILTON ISLINGTON, or similar. (B,D)

DAY 6 ~ SATURDAY ~ JUNE 26
LONDON: TATE MODERN MUSEUM, BOROUGH MARKET & NATIONAL THEATER

Walk over the Millennium Bridge to the Tate Modern art gallery, one of London’s most popular attractions, in the former Bankside power station on the Queen’s Walk, Southbank. Sir Giles Scott, who designed this outstanding modern and contemporary building, was also the designer of Battersea power station and the iconic London red telephone box. It opened to the public in the year 2000 and has become one of the most visited Art Galleries in the world. Tate Modern features works by Rothko, Matisse, Dali, Cezanne and Picasso, and contemporary works by Matthew Barney, Chris Ofili and Gerhard Richter. Note: Extra entrance fees will be charged locally for some exhibitions.

Enjoy free time for lunch (on your own) at Borough Market. Spend your time here exploring, shopping and enjoying the delicious restaurants. Borough Market has existed in one form or another for around 1,000 years. Its precise start date is impossible to pin down: there was no official opening, no ribbon-cutting ceremony, not even a brief mention in a chronicle. The best date available, and the one used as the basis for the Market’s millennium celebration, is 1014.

This afternoon, enjoy a backstage tour of the National Theatre and explore the backstage life of the National Theatre. The National Theatre creates over 20 new productions every year. Join a tour and see preparation for the shows, including set-building and prop-making in our workshops. No two tours are ever the same, so come and see what’s happening behind-the-scenes.

Enjoy a pre-theatre dinner at a local restaurant and afterwards enjoy a show at London theatre. Note: Show to be chosen nearer the time of arrival. Overnight at the DOUBLE TREE BY HILTON ISLINGTON, or similar. (B,D)
DAY 7 ~ SUNDAY ~ JUNE 27
SOUTH WEST LONDON
Today’s drive takes you 13 miles outside London to Hampton Court Palace, most popularly known as the palace of King Henry VIII and his six wives. This is his best surviving royal residence and is one of only two of King Henry’s palaces to remain in anything like its original form to the present day.

Your next stop, the Royal Botanic Gardens, Kew, was officially inscribed on the list of World Heritage Sites by UNESCO in July 2003. The garden is widely recognized as one of the leading centers for advice and action on aspects of plant and fungal conservation, and in general for the conservation programs on a wide range of endangered and threatened plants and their habitats. You will marvel at the lilacs, azaleas, rhododendrons and magnolias, and Himalayan blue poppies. The gardens contain one of the finest bluebell woods in the London area and it flourishes in the spring as well as a fascinating collection of native wildlife and birdlife. The varied plant collections and rich invertebrate fauna support over 40 species of bird which breed in the gardens annually while at least 30 more visit regularly in season. The presence of a small collection of captive birds and the provision of birdfeeders have the effect of making many wild birds a little less cautious than they would usually be, enabling the watcher to possibly get good views of species which are normally elusive elsewhere.

This evening, enjoy a farewell dinner on a River Thames Cruise. As the sun sets and the city lights up, step on board and get ready for a very special evening on the river. Your table awaits so sit down, relax and let the boat take you on a journey through the city. When Big Ben chimes it will feel like time is standing still. You will soon begin to smell your delicious food cooking in the kitchen. Step outside to feel the breeze as you pass under London’s most iconic bridges and let the sights unfold around you. As the live band begins to play, your food is brought to your table for you to enjoy with our carefully selected wines.
Overnight at the DOUBLE TREE BY HILTON ISLINGTON, or similar. (B,D)
