

Ancient Treasures of Egypt

MARCH 29 - APRIL 9, 2022

Pyramids and Sphinx, Cairo

Join us on a tour of Egypt where monumental pyramids rise out of the desert and the River Nile weaves through the land providing the country with its extraordinary history. Shifting sands and arid conditions have preserved thousands of years of a remarkable civilization in fascinating detail.

Led by Egyptologist and Professor of History, Elaine Sullivan, our trip begins with three nights in Cairo, exploring the Giza plateau where the Great Pyramids and Sphinx have stood for thousands of years and the newly opened Egyptian Grand Museum. Fly to Luxor for two nights discovering the world's largest open-air museum before boarding your ship for a four-night cruise "up" the Nile to Aswan stopping at isolated temples en route. Fly to Abu Simbel and marvel at its grandeur and architecture.

Marriott Mena House

MARRIOTT MENA HOUSE

A hotel with a storied history, dating to 1886, includes visits from heads of state and celebrities as well as 1977 peace talks between Egypt and Israel. Rooms have Pyramid views and hotel amenities include three international restaurants, a bar, spa, gym, and outside swimming pool.

DAYS 1/2/3/4:
MARCH 29–APRIL 1
San Francisco
Cairo

Fly overnight to Cairo, where you will be escorted to your hotel on the Giza plateau overlooking the Pyramids. On Day 3, tour Sakkara, a vast burial ground, and the Step Pyramid of Zoser. In the afternoon visit the spectacular Egyptian Museum and its Mummy Rooms before exploring Islamic Cairo at the Citadel. Enjoy a welcome dinner at a local restaurant with your fellow travelers. On Day 4, wander across the Giza plateau and experience the sheer magnitude of the Khufu, Khafre and Menkaure Pyramids. Standing guard at the Khafre Pyramid is the Sphinx, the earliest known monumental structure of ancient Egypt. Stop at the Solar Barque Museum housing the remains of solar boats thought to have brought the pharaoh’s mummy to the site. End the day at the newly opened Grand Egyptian Museum where the entire Tutankhamun collection will be displayed.

DAY 5/6:
APRIL 2-3
Luxor

Head to the airport for your flight to Luxor. Visit the West Bank where hundreds of magnificent burial temples were built on the flood plains while splendidly decorated tombs hidden in the hills held the bodies and wealth of the rulers. Wander through the Tombs of the Nobles where tombs from the 6th Dynasty to the Greco-Roman period are nestled painted with scenes from daily life still visible today. On Day 6 return to the West Bank and explore Deir el Medina and Medinat Habu where the workmen, a mixed community of Egyptians, Nubians and Asiatics, who built the tombs lived with their families.

DAY 7/8:

APRIL 4-5

Nile Cruise Luxor, Esna

Board the luxurious Sonesta St. George Nile cruise ship and begin further exploring Luxor at the awe-inspiring Temple of Karnak whose ancient name 'Ipet Sut' designates the center of the world where Amun, creator of the universe created himself. Visit the adjacent Temple of Mut where Professor Sullivan has done previous excavations. Wander through the Temple of Luxor, one of the best preserved ancient monuments with large amounts of the structure, statuary and relief carvings still intact. On Day 8 return to the West Bank and the Valley of the Kings and the extraordinary funeral temple of Queen Hatshepsut with its imposing terraces. Stop at the Colossi of Memnon, two huge statues of the king seated on his throne before sailing to Esna, home to a strong weaving industry.

DAY 9/10:

APRIL 6-7

Nile Cruise Kom Ombo, Aswan

Sailing the Nile stop at Edfu and, by horse carriage discover the Temple of Horus, the largest and best preserved Ptolemaic temple in Egypt. After lunch on board set sail to Kom Ombo set on top of a hillock. Wander through the symmetrical Greco-Roman temple dedicated to two gods. The left side of the temple is dedicated to the falcon gold Haroeris and the right side to Sobek, the local crocodile god. On Day 10 cruise to Aswan and explore the Temple of Isis, on the Island of Agilkia. Visit the granite quarries which supplied the hard stone used in the construction of the temples and board a typical Egyptian sail boat, a felucca, to cruise around Elephantine Island, Lord Kitchener's Botanical Gardens and the Aga Khan Mausoleum.

Did you know...Approximately 99% of the Egyptian population lives on about 5.5% of the land. Egypt is arid in climate and as a result, the population settles around the Nile Valley and Delta because there is arable agricultural land to be found on either side of the Nile River which is the world's longest river at 4,135 miles.

DAY 11:
APRIL 8
Abu Simbel
Cairo

Disembark the ship this morning in Aswan and transfer to the airport for a short flight to Abu Simbel which lies just 25 miles north of the Sudan border. Hewn out of solid cliff in the 13th century BC, Abu Simbel features four colossal enthroned statues of Rames II wearing the double crown of Upper and Lower Egypt. Following construction of the Aswan High Dam, engineers were tasked with the operation to move the site 215 feet higher to avoid rising waters. After a simple lunch at a traditional Nubian house fly through Awan to Cairo for a farewell dinner.

FOUR SEASONS FIRST RESIDENCE (B,L,D)

DAYS 12:
APRIL 9
Cairo
San Francisco (B)

After breakfast head to the airport for your flight home, bringing with you memories of the awe-inspiring ancient sites you have seen during your adventure in Egypt!
